The Grand Secretary announced that James Ewing Davis, Grand Master of the Jurisdiction of Illinois, was in the city. Whereupon the Grand Master appointed the following committee—H. M. Kean, G. Rep.; E. G. Hogate, P. G. Rep., and H. A. Winterrowd, P. G.—to introduce the distinguished brother, which was done, and he was received with the honors of the Order.

The Grand Secretary announced the following appointments, which were approved:

Jno. F. Wallick, Journal Clerk.J. H. Carroll, Custodian of the Secret Work.H. A. Winterrowd, Press Reporter.O. A. Armfield, Proofreader.

On motion it was ordered that when the Grand Lodge adjourn it be until 8:30 a.m. tomorrow, that brothers who may desire can visit the Home at Greensburg this afternoon, a special train being provided for conveying all members who desire to do so.

The report of the Grand Master, with appendix, being the decisions of the Grand Master, was submitted, as follows:

REPORT OF GRAND MASTER.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Brothers-We have assembled in this the Seventy-fifth Semiannual Communication of the Grand Lodge, representing the lodges from every part of the State of Indiana. You are the spokesmen and the legislators for nearly 85,000 people. As representatives of the Order here assembled, I hope you will be faithful to the trust imposed and resting upon you as representatives of your lodges. You have been selected by your brethren to perform this duty, so it behooves each and every one of you to thoroughly consider every question that comes before this body and to act for the best interests of the Order at large. There is no doubt but what I have made mistakes, but I assure you they were not made wilfully. Perhaps there are things I have done, that I should not, and things I did not do, that I should have done. The work has required a great deal of time; the pleasant duties have far exceeded the unpleasant ones, and I hope that the next six months may be as pleasant as the past. During the term there have been a number of questions submitted; I have endeavored to answer all that have come to me through the legal channels, as per our law, Section 57, page 33, General Laws of 1910.

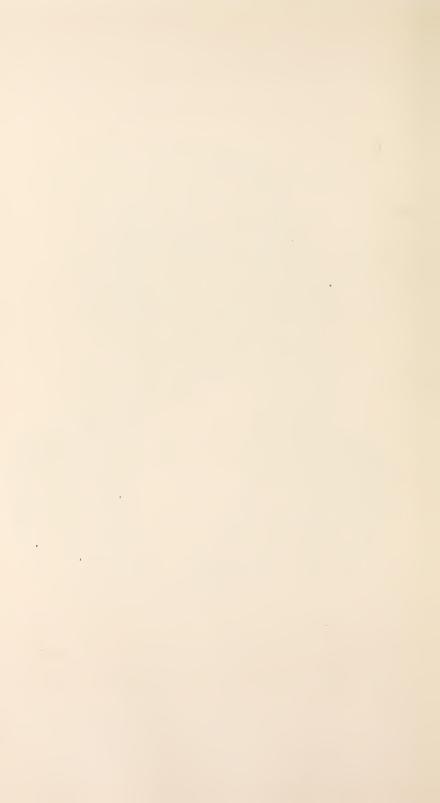

If all the lodges would procure the latest General Laws, and make use of them there would be fewer questions asked, as we are governed by these laws. This lodge is yours; you are the law-makers, and look well to your duty.

District Deputy Grand Masters.

One of my first official acts was the appointment of ninety-two district deputies. These appointments were made from personal knowledge or from the recommendations of others. I tried to select such persons as I thought would devote at least a part of their time to the work required of them. In most cases I have not been disappointed. I have always found them ready and willing to do whatever I required of them. To these kind brothers and to all good workers we owe the great gain of our Order. If there is a brother appointed to this office, who thinks he has too much work to perform to make him a successful district deputy, let him resign. Where the district deputies are active, the lodges are prosperous and doing a good work. I hope all members will remember that each county has a well qualified district deputy, whose duty it is to answer all questions and to aid the lodges in all ways that he can. In many instances I have refused to answer questions not first presented to them, and have referred the questions direct to the district deputies. Hereafter I shall place full confidence in them, and refer all questions to them, and only answer such questions as may come direct from them or on an appeal from them. I believe that each has done his duty as he saw it, and I wish to thank each of them for their hearty support.

AMANDUS N. GRANT GRAND MASTER, 1886-87

Lodges.

There are many lodges doing good work. The indications point to the greatest gain in membership this term that our Order has ever experienced in its history. I wish to call your attention to two lodges in particular: No. 465, which on January 2, 1911, initiated 102, and presented each initiate with a nice, neat emblem of the Order, the three links. In this class of 102 was the distinguished ex-vice-president, Honorable Charles W. Fairbanks. I also visited LaFayette Lodge, No. 15, when they initiated 68 members. The opera house was crowded with enthusiastic Odd Fellows. This occasion was also made one long to be remembered. The lodge had procured a fine Collar, and the Grand Sire, in as grand a tribute as could be given, presented it to our old friend, Uncle George Rogers; not because he was one of its oldest members, but because he is, and has been, its stay and one of its greatest workers. I wish all our lodges had a few George Rogerses I am also informed that this lodge has another class of 52 to initiate this month. There are some lodges who haven't They are too busily engaged in personal time to do the work. disputes or quarrels among themselves. Brothers, if you would succeed, you must stop this. Get busy and keep busy.

Dispensations and Consolidations.

During the term there have been granted dispensations for three Subordinate and five Rebekah Lodges, all of which are in good locations and have splendid prospects before them. I have also granted for permission to consolidate Elmorro Rebekah Lodge, No. 601, with Fairmount Rebekah Lodge, No. 305. The members of said lodges having complied with the law in such cases and being fully convinced that such consolidation would be for the good of the Order. There was also presented a petition for a new Subordinate Lodge at Gary, Indiana. Steel City Lodge remonstrated against the granting of such charter. The time was set for the hearing and both petitioners and remonstrators heard by the Grand Master, Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer. Said hearing lasted most of the day. After hearing all the evidence we decided that the granting of said charter would not materially injure Steel City Lodge. The great question that confronted us was, would the granting of said charter, under the circumstances, benefit the Order? But before action was taken, said petition was withdrawn by the petitioners.

We have reasons to feel proud of the work done this term. I refused the application for a Rebekah Lodge at Indiana Harbor. My reason for refusing it was, I had just a short time before granted a charter for a new lodge at the same place and most of the petitioners for the one refused were the same as for the one granted. For details of new lodges and consolidation see Grand Secretary's report. I hope that this Grand Lodge will approve my action in refusing said charter for the lodge mentioned, for reasons stated.

Van Buren Lodge No. 633.

Some months ago I received a communication from Van Buren Lodge asking what they should do about accepting the dues of Brother John Heaston, who had been a member of the Home and had left the Home without permission of the superintendent. Upon investigation I found the brother had committed no crime and, as he said, so regained his health that he was able to look after himself and look after his support, and no longer wished to be an expense and burden to the Home. I therefore ruled that his Lodge must accept his dues; and hearing nothing further presumed that they had complied with my ruling, until on March the 24th, 1911, I received a communication stating that the lodge had not nor would not accept the brother's money and therefore had not complied with my request. Upon the receipt of the last letter I immediately wrote to Van Buren Lodge the following letter:

"March 25th, 1911.

Van Buren Lodge, No. 633, Van Buren, Indiana:

Dear Brothers—Some time in December, I received a communication from you concerning Brother Heaston, who is a member of your lodge, and was a member of the Home, which he left and came to you, tendering you his dues which your lodge refused. In which case you ask my opinion. I replied that I had investigated the case and found that Brother Heaston had committed no crime in leaving the Home, and that his lodge must accept his dues. I supposed the same had been complied with, until this morning. Now, brothers, I want this complied with, and Brother Heaston restored to membership.

Yours in F. L. T., J. M. STIPP, G. M." Letter replying to the above:

"Van Buren, Ind.

Dear Brother-When Brother Heaston sent his dues, we sent them back stating to him to keep his place in the Home, for he knew that his disease was such that he could not stand work. He is sick now and has been for two weeks. We spent almost a hundred dollars for getting him clothes and sending him to the Now he is ready to go back, I suppose, and according to the letter from the superintendent they will not permit it. must still bear the burden for a man who will not do the best for himself and all concerned. This lodge does not feel it their duty to do so. If we accept his dues, we will do it under protest, and take it up with the Grand Lodge. I talked to this brother and he said he was not able to work and never would be. came to Van Buren and began to work for Mr. Bratten in a meatmarket and he told me he had to let him go for he could not stand on his feet, and was taking medicine all the time. I hope you will investigate at the Home and find out if he did not leave the Home without leave, thereby severing his connection with the Home. The lodge does not want to do Brother Heaston an injustice, but we feel that we understand the case better than any one else. And, understanding his trouble, we feel that he should have taken the advice of this Lodge in this matter. I am sending a letter by Mrs. Mary Lewis, Superintendent of the Home. Please read it, then make enquiry and see if we can send Brother Heaston back to the Home, without spending the same money we did to get him there in the first place.

> Yours fraternally JOHN BAXELL, Secretary."

Upon the receipt of said letter I wrote the following, to which I have received no reply:

"Van Buren, Ind.

Van Buren Lodge, No. 633, I. O. O. F., Van Buren, Ind.:

My Dear Brothers-Yours received. In reply will say that the brother has committed no crime that I can see, and a lodge has no right to expel or deprive a member of his membership in this manner, nor can it throw out an old brother without cause. There has been no charges filed against him, and a lodge cannot deprive one of its members of his membership without first filing charges. So you must accept his dues. You can do so under protest if you desire, for I expect to make a full report of my actions in this case Fraternally yours, J. M. STIPP, G. M." to the Grand Lodge

I wish to say that I have given you all the particulars in this case. If, as Brother states, Brother Heaston lost his membership at the Home, and his lodge would not accept his dues, thus depriving him of his membership in his Home Lodge, does it look, as the brother says in his letter, as if they do not want to do the brother a wrong? Brothers, my actions in this case are up to you for approval or disapproval. I have been guided by this: "Do unto others, as you would have others do unto you," and for such actions I ask your approval.

County Meetings.

I have received many invitations and visited several of these meetings, and I think them a great benefit to the Order. If each county would donate one day to this great work, I feel sure you would benefit your lodges. I also believe these meetings should be held jointly with the Rebekah Lodges. Let the public see your demonstration, and gain some knowledge of what Odd Fellowship is doing in the world. These meetings should be attended by as many Grand Lodge officers as possible. I would recommend that the State be divided into twelve districts, the same as for congressional purposes, and that each district hold at least one district meeting during each term. Location of said meeting to be determined by the District Deputy Grand Masters of said district, and that these meetings be attended by the Grand Master and the Grand Instructor; and that each district pay the expense of said meeting.

Deaths.

Since our last meeting death has invaded our ranks and has removed from among us, one of our best workers; one who devoted much of his time to the work of Odd Fellowship. His genial face and wise counsel will be missed. In the death of H. J. McSheehy, Odd Fellowship has lost a good friend and a great worker.

The Rebekah Branch.

I am sorry to say this branch of the Order is not in as good condition as it should be. I feel that the subordinate membership is to a certain extent to blame for it. For, such a small per cent. of them belong to this branch of the Order. We have lost the honor of first place in this State for this branch. Another reason is too many of our lodges resort to the use of the black ball, because an applicant hasn't relatives belonging to the subordinate branch of the Order. Some Subordinate Lodges insist upon the Rebekah Lodges paying hall rent. If they do compel them to pay hall rent, whose pocket does this rent come out of? If the brothers who are not Rebekahs insist upon them paying such rents, the brothers who are Rebekahs should vote them down. Brothers should encourage and not discourage this branch of the Order. Let us all put our shoulder to the wheel and regain what we have lost; if you can't pull, push. Can we do this? and will we do it? Let us keep ahead.

Rituals.

It has come to me that some Noble Grands permit its members to take the ritual from the Lodge Room, for the purpose of committing their charges in the degree work, which is contrary to our Should I find this to be true, on investigation, it is a just cause to have said officer or officers expelled from the Order; while others have permitted their members to have in their possession books contrary to our law, to be used for this purpose. If your lodges have been doing this see that it is stopped. also that these books are destroyed, before they destroy you. also wish to call your attention to the fact that some lodges are very rough with candidates, treating them in such manner as to endanger life and limb. And after the lodge closes, meet at stores and other such places, and discuss the manner of conferring the degree before persons not members of the Order. Brothers, such actions are prohibited by our Order and must be stopped.

Bargersville Lodge.

Some time in January there was a ritual lost or stolen from the lodge room by some unknown person or persons. Word has come to me that it could be proven that a member was seen placing the ritual under his coat. I at once notified the Noble Grand and Deputy Grand Master to investigate and to bring charges against the brother if this be true, and gave them until the 17th of May to prove these charges or find the ritual, and report. As the day set for reporting is the first day of the meeting of Grand Lodge, I wish this Grand Body would determine the penalty that should be inflicted upon the lodge's officers and members, should the lost ritual not be returned to the lodge room by the time designated.

Appeals for Aid.

I received requests from two different lodges, asking permission to solicit aid, both of which were refused. My reasons for not granting the permission was, I could not see but that the lodges making the requests were as able to help themselves as many lodges were to help them. And these requests, if granted, would have established a precedent which would forever have been an annoyance to other lodges.

Sanders Lodge No. 307 vs. Martha Rebekah Lodge No. 269.

This is the case which was referred to me as unsettled from the last term in which Martha Rebekah Lodge was refused admission to the Lodge Hall, and which Brother Miller tried very hard to get adjusted. Upon assuming the office of Grand Master, I referred this case to my District Deputy, of that district, with instructions to proceed at once to have their troubles adjusted. In a short time I received notice from him, that he had done as requested, and that satisfactory arrangements had been made, and that all their troubles were at an end.

Our Home.

On the third day of April I, in company with the President of the Rebekah Assembly, visited the Home at Greensburg. No one had knowledge of our coming. We visited and talked with inmates in the various departments if the institutions. So far as we were able to see and learn from the different ones, the Institution was in good condition. All seemed well pleased with the manner of treatment by the superintendent, but some complaints were made of the treatment received at the hands of some of the attendants. The children all seemed happy, and the old contented. The lawns and buildings were in good condition and showed that they were well kept. Every member of the Order should make it their business to visit the Home and talk to the inmates and learn from them if everything is satisfactory, and see for themselves what Odd Fellowship has done for its suffering, homeless and afflicted ones, in the way of caring for the old and indigent brothers and sisters and orphan children.

I would suggest that it be made all the word implies—a home. In order to do this, I would recommend that our Home law be so amended as not to permit a child to be removed from said Home and placed in outside families, except they be removed by their parents, or by legal adoption. And then only, when the parents or family are financially able to care for them in as good a manner as our Home. Personally I have known of two cases, where the children had been removed and taken away from the homes they were placed in for the reason they were not being raised and cared for as the good of the Order required they should, and as you would want your children raised should they be compelled to go to the Home and later placed out among strangers and in homes not presided over by a good brother or sister Odd Fellow, and by one who has not taken the obligation to protect and educate the orphan.

Restoration of Members.

Since the last session of the Grand Lodge, I have received requests from several lodges for permission to restore to membership brothers and sisters that had been dropped or expelled from the Order. In all cases I have granted said requests. Following are the names of the brothers and sisters restored and the lodges asking permission:

Moses Specter, by Lodge No. 667.

John H. Krung, by Lodge No. 593.

P. L. Quellen, by Lodge No. —.

Joseph Bedino, W. E. Connard, by Lodge No. 732.

Miss Allie Stamp, by Friendship Lodge, No. 53.

The Talisman.

I wish to thank the management of the Talisman for what they have done for me. Personally I think it is doing a good work throughout the State as through it we keep in touch with happenings and the work of different lodges. Brothers desiring to be good, genuine Odd Fellows, and up to the work in Odd Fellowship, in every particular, should read it. To make this magazine a success, they need your support. It will help you. If you are not a subscriber, become one before returning home.

Conclusion.

I wish to thank this Grand Lodge and all its members for the honor they have conferred upon me, and all Past-Grand Masters who have so ably helped me; also our Grand Secretary who has always been ready and willing to help me in any way he could, both in work and advice. He has not only been a help to me, but to the entire Order. I shall always feel grateful to him. It shall be my aim and desire to accomplish more for the good of the Order, in the next six months, than I have in the past.

Fraternally submitted,

Grand Master.

APPENDIX I. REPORT OF GRAND MASTER.

Questions and Answers.

(Decisions approved where not otherwise noted).

- Q. 1. Is a dispensation issued in person, or by telephone, legal?
- A. I am of the opinion that a verbal dispensation, issued in person (Secretary's books to so show) would be legal; but one issued by 'phone would not. Would say that all dispensations should be in writing.

[Answer amended to read "Yes"]

- Q. 2. Is 13 weeks at $3.00 per week, 13 weeks at not less than $2.00 per week, repeat for the next 26 succeeding weeks, or to the end of one year, the $1.00 per week as long as the sickness or disability continues compulsory?
- A. Yes. See Sec. 117 General Laws 1910, Grand Lodge. Proceedings 1853, page 126; also, Sec. 119, General Laws, 1910.
- Q. 3. Do you consider the joint installation of the Rebekah Lodge and of the Subordinate Lodge to be public installation? What section of General Laws would apply?
 - A. Yes. Should be as per General Laws, Sec. 35, of 1910.
- Q. 4. Lodge failed to elect Officers on last meeting night in November, but elected on first meeting in December. Is the election legal?
- A. No. See Sec. 25, General Laws, 1910, page 47. Old officers would hold over unless they resign.
- Q. 5. If Vice Grand fails to be present majority of meeting nights in the term, claiming he can give good reasons for his absence, (not sickness) can the Lodge excuse him and recognize him as eligible to the chair of Noble Grand?
- A. Lodge cannot excuse him for majority of nights. (Except for sickness, 1905, page 4177.) Therefore he would not be eligible to the Noble Grand's chair unless he had served a full term as Vice Grand previous to the term in question.
- Q. 6. We have a man in our jurisdiction that wants to join our Lodge. He belongs in Ohio. Is there any way we can take him in and not violate the Law?
- A. Yes, if he has been a resident of the jurisdiction for six months, and is not otherwise disqualified, as per General Laws, Sec. 44, 1910. If a non-resident you must comply with Sec. 45, General Laws, 1910.

Statement. Our Lodge nominated two persons for Treasurer on night of nominations and on night of election one resigned, leaving but one candidate.

- Q. 7. Could the Lodge have nominated another on election night?
- A. No; unless both had resigned, as the night for nomination had expired. Must elect the remaining candidate if otherwise qualified.
- Q. 8. A brother suspended for 18 months died while under suspension; he had always kept his dues paid up; was not delinquent at time of death. Was his Lodge liable for funeral expenses paid by his Lodge?
- A. In this case I am of the opinion his Lodge was not liable. They should have accepted his money while he was under suspension. Sec. 138, General Laws, 1910. Also Sec. 93.
- Q. 9. Is a Sister Sec. of Rebekah Lodge lawfully bound to use the Delinquent Half-yearly notices of their delinquency in the manner and on the form prescribed by the General Law?
 - A. Yes. No other notice is legal.
- Q. 10. Shall the vote for reinstatement to beneficial membership be by a ball ballot?
 - A. Yes. See Sec. 110, General Laws, 1910.
- Q. 11. Can a Lodge donate its hall to the use of another organization?
- A. I know of no law preventing them from doing so, but I doubt the propriety of it.
- Q. 12. Can we initiate a member February 23, who will not be 21 years old until March 5th following?
- A. No. The General Law places the age limit. I cannot change it.
- Q. 13. A single Sister with no father or brother an Odd Fellow, was dropped for non-payment of dues. She married a man who is not an Odd Fellow. Is she eligible to reinstatement?
 - A. Yes. See Grand Lodge proceedings, 1902, page 2586.
- Q. 14. A brother dies; relief committee draws warrant in favor of widow; she fails to pay funeral expenses; can the party owed by the widow sue the lodge for the amount?
- A. I know of no law preventing them from suing the lodge, but under our law they could not recover, as our law provides that funeral expenses must be paid first to the widow; if none, then to the orphans dependent.

[Answer modified; see report No. 16 of the Judiciary Committee.]

Statement. A brother wishing to become a member of another lodge, files his certificate; is balloted on December the 30th, but does not sign the constitution until March the 10th.

Q. 15. When should the brother's dues commence?

A. From the time of his election.

[Answer amended to read: "From the date he signs the Constitution in the new lodge."]

- Q. 16. Is a brother who has not been a contributing member six months, entitled to watchers in case he requires them?
- A. Yes. See Grand Lodge proceedings, 1893, pages 1627 and 1630.

[Answer reversed, see report No. 17 of the Judiciary Committee.]

- Q. 17. Can a lodge by motion drop members of a Rebekah Lodge from the roll after one year, if they have never given the half yearly notices?
- A. No. The General Law, Section 284, provides that they must give them two half-yearly notices before they can be dropped.

Statement. Our last meeting night is June the 24th; a brother's receipt shows him paid to June the 30th; he failed to pay dues on June the 24th.

Q. 18. Is the brother delinquent?

A. Yes. He would be in good standing until June the 30th, but for the quarter commencing July the 1st he would be delinquent, as our law provides that he pay dues in advance on or before the last meeting night in March, June, September and December.

Statement. A widow dies leaving an estate and leaving no dependent heirs and never was dependent on any one.

- Q. 19. Is the lodge required to pay funeral benefits?
- A. No. See Grand Lodge proceedings, 1895, page 2362; 1898, page 864; 1906, page 4767; 1908, page 5916.

[Answer amended to read "Yes."]

- Q. 20. Is it illegal to sell tickets, each ticket entitling holder to a chance to draw an automobile?
- A. Yes. If I understand Section 162, of the General Laws of 1910 correctly.
- Q. 21. When a brother has been rejected on a card, how long a time must elapse before he can be balloted again?
 - A. Not before three months.
- Q. 22. Can a lodge withhold benefits of a sick brother because he owes the lodge money on a note?
 - A. I am of the opinion it cannot.
- Q. 23. Does the four weeks paid by a brother on a transfer certificate entitle him to benefits if he should become sick?
- A. Yes. The four weeks paid protects him while the transfer is being made. Should he desire to be beneficiary after the four weeks, he must pay six months' dues in advance.

- Q. 24. We have several brothers who failed to pay their dues here on the last meeting night of the quarter, March the 25th, but got them to the Secretary before the 31st of March; are they delinquent?
- A. Yes. To be beneficiary they must pay dues on or before the last meeting night of the quarter.
- Q. 25. What steps are to be taken when charges are filed and the Noble Grand claims to have lost them?
 - A. File new ones.
- Q. 26. Can subordinate degree staff give an exhibition drill before the Rebekahs dressed in their costumes for degree work?
 - A. No, they cannot and comply with our law.

Fraternally submitted,

Grand Master.

St. Mary's Lodge, No. 167, January 31, 1911. Everton Lodge, No. 139, February 2, 1911. Brook Lodge, No. 717, February 3, 1911. Youngs Creek Lodge, No. 667, February 3, 1911. Mooreland Lodge, No. 651, February 4, 1911. Lafayette Lodge, No. 15, February 6, 1911. Hope Lodge, No. 727, February 6, 1911. Youngstown Lodge, No. 685, February 14, 1911. Ridgeville Lodge, No. 788, February 15, 1911. Walkerton Lodge, No. 437, February 17, 1911. Greenwood Lodge, No. 198, February 22, 1911. Beaver Lodge, No. 378, March 7, 1911. Frankfort Lodge, No. 108, March 14, 1911. Bunker Hill Lodge, No. 369, March 14, 1911. Asherville Lodge, No. 757, March 17, 1911. Union City Lodge, No. 152, March 21, 1911. Dewey Lodge, No. 753, March 22, 1911. Amant Lodge, No. 356, March 22, 1911. Dubois Lodge, No. 635, March 23, 1911. Amico Lodge, No. 707, March 25, 1911. Star Lodge, No. 236, March 28, 1911. Elizabeth Lodge, No. 578, April 7, 1911. Steel City Lodge, No. 853, April 7, 1911.

I have disapproved amendment to by-laws of Shawswick Lodge, No. 177, which amendment provided in substance that a brother sick or disabled, but not confined to his house and able to be about the streets, would be required to attend each lodge meeting under penalty of forfeiture of benefits.

Very few by-laws submitted for approval have been correct, but I am convinced that the reason in practically all cases is that the lodges do not provide themselves with the last edition of the General Laws, as in some cases I found by-laws based upon the General Laws of 1904. I would suggest that the lodge, generally, comply with section 269 of the General Laws, providing that all lodges shall procure copies of the latest edition of the General Laws, and by so doing, many mistakes will be avoided.

I have also examined, corrected and approved nine (9) sets of by-laws for Rebekah Lodges, and six (6) amendments for Rebekah Lodges as follows:

BY-LAWS.

Excelsior Lodge, No. 753, December 9, 1910. Olive Branch Lodge, No. 10, December 9, 1910. Paradise Lodge, No. 83, December 9, 1910. North Star Lodge, No. 92, December 16, 1910. Mizpah Lodge, No. 514, February 2, 1911. Oliver Lodge, No. 746, February 22, 1911. Charity Lodge, No. 241, March 25, 1911. Hackleman Lodge, No. 757, March 26, 1911. Silver Star Lodge, No. 128, April 11, 1911.

AMENDMENTS.

Bee Hive Lodge, No. 525, December 9, 1910. Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 651, December 10, 1910. Harmony Lodge, No. 400, December 12, 1910. Colfax Lodge, No. 34, January 28, 1911. Maze Lodge, No. 299, March 4, 1911. Pansy Lodge, No. 576, March 15, 1911.

Despite the fact that previous Deputy Grand Masters have called attention to the fact that Rebekah Lodges cannot enact by-laws fixing a stated amount of funeral benefits, yet I find many lodges still endeavoring to do this, although it is contrary to the laws of the Order.

Fraternally submitted,

JAMES L. HARMAN,

Deputy Grand Master.

W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary, submitted his report, as follows:

The amount paid for Grand Lodge dues averaged 22.4 cents per member, as against 22.5 cents for the previous term.

The average membership of lodges is 104.9.

The largest lodge has 790 members.

Reports of Lodges.

Every lodge reported. This is 14 years, 28 consecutive terms, in which there has not been a delinquent lodge.

As usual, the reports of lodges were promptly sent in. The three lodges entitled to the honor of having first reported were Cadiz, No. 237, Cadiz, December 30, 1911; Robert Blum, No. 278, South Bend, and Russell Lodge, No. 841, Russellville, both on the day following.

The two lodges whose reports were last received were Tangier, No. 632, Tangier, and Chosen Friends, No. 13, Aurora, both on February 18, 1911. I am hoping for the day when every lodge will report in January.

Appeals.

The following appeals have been filed and referred to the Committee on Grievances and Appeals:

1348. H. R. Huckstep vs. Rose Lodge, No. 638.

1349. Aaron Madden vs. Scalesville Lodge, No. 816.

Fires.

The following lodge buildings have been destroyed by fire since our last session:

The building of Camden Lodge, No. 151, at Camden, Carroll County, December 17, 1910. Contents nearly all destroyed. Ritual, charter and records saved. The lodge carried $2,000 insurance.

The lodge building of Lodges Nos. 2 and 72 at Madison, January 18, 1911. A part of the contents saved.

Dedications.

Since my last report lodge buildings have been dedicated as follows:

By Flora Lodge, No. 526, at Flora, Carroll County, November 22, 1910, by Bro. A. W. Wolever, D. D. G. M., and a selected staff.

By Lucerne Lodge, No. 680, at Lucerne, Cass County, in January, by the following staff: H. J. McSheehy, G. M.; W. A. Keys, Grand Marshall; Ira Cree, G. W.; Cyrus Beauchamp, G. C.; W. C. Goldsberry, G. G.; John E. Barnes, Chairman of Building Committee; Alonzo Clavy, Marcus D. Renfroe, John Toglesong and Joseph Longman, Grand Heralds.

By Bethel Lodge, No. 731, at Stout, Delaware County, January 25, by C. W. Blackburn, D. D. G. M., and a staff selected from the lodges of Muncie.

By Hazleton Lodge, No. 389, at Hazleton, Gibson County, April 5, by the following staff: Charles L. Howard, G. M.; F. D. Steelman, G. W.; E. A. Arthur, G. C.; A. C. Sisson, Grand Marshal; C. P. Ehlers, James B. Needham, Charles E. Jones, S. R. Cunningham and Arthur Barnett.

Great Work.

LaFayette Lodge, No. 15, of LaFayette, through the leadership of Brother George Rogers, and Indianapolis Lodge, No. 465, led by Brother Chas. G. Duvall, have each, so far this term, initiated more than 100 members. I doubt if these records here have ever been equalled in this State, except in cases of new lodges. Many other lodges have initiated twenty or more. In some cases lodges that have been inactive for years have taken on new life and have initiated ten or fifteen or more. The lodges that have always been busy continue busy. I have asked every lodge, without exception, to strive for a net gain of ten or more during this year of 1911. If all do so we may have hopes of securing the Grand Sire's Cup and Banner. So many lodges, however, are in the "do nothing" class that I fear we will not nearly realize this hope.

J. E. C. F. HARPER GRAND MASTER, 1888-89

Special Letters to Dropped Members.

In the hope of reducing the losses from non-payment of dues, I took it upon myself to address a personal letter to all members reported dropped in the January reports, urging them not to permit their membership to lapse. I also wrote all members reported to me by secretaries who were six months or more in arrears. While I have been advised that these appeals were effective in some cases, whether sufficiently so to justify the labor and expense I will better be able to judge after receiving reports for the present term. These letters numbered more than 1,200.

Sovereign Grand Lodge.

The Committee of Arrangements for the Entertainment of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in September has its preparations well perfected and advanced. The program adopted contemplates a week of interest and value to all members who shall attend. It is proposed to extend a most cordial hospitality to the members of the Sovereign Body, and at the same time not so encroach upon their time as to make the attentions we shall offer discourteous, or interfere with the discharge of their duties. The program will consist of a complimentary excursion to the Home September 16; luncheon to Grand Secretaries, Grand Scribes and Fraternal Editors; A public welcome to be addressed by Governor Thos. R. Marshall, ex-Vice-President Chas. W. Fairbanks and Grand Sire, John B. Cockrum. A banquet to Grand Representatives and Past Grand Representatives; a celebration of the anniversary of Rebekah Odd Fellowship; a service to the memory of Schuyler Colfax; a torch-light parade and many other features. great value are offered to the Patriarchs Militant for competitive drills, and to Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges and Encampments for exemplifications of the degrees. Prizes amounting to nearly $8,000 are offered for these two features, and the indications are that the world's best Cantons and degree staffs will be here. In fact, as this is prepared, a score of degree staffs have entered for the degree contests and more will follow. There will be attractions every day for every member that shall come. It is the desire of the Committee that every lodge in the State be in the great parade that a display unequaled in fraternal history may be made.

Special Grand Lodge Session.

That Noble Grands of the present term who pass out and become Past Grands in July may be qualified to visit the Sovereign Grand Lodge in September, it is advisable to hold a special meeting of this Grand Lodge, Monday, September 18, for the exclusive purpose of conferring the Grand Lodge Degrees on such as shall appear for that purpose. Mileage and per diem should not be paid for such session.

[4-G 105]

The Banner and Cup.

I note with pleasure the efforts being made by several jurisdictions to secure the Cup and Banner offered by our Grand Sire to the jurisdiction and lodge, respectively, that shall make the largest net gain in 1911. Whether Indiana is to be considered a quantity in this laudable, fraternal contest will depend upon our lodges and membership. If a net gain of ten shall be made by every lodge in the State I consider that we will have a very good chance; otherwise we will not realize what must be the hope of every earnest member.

The Question of New Lodges.

At my request there was adopted at the May Session a resolution providing that the charter fees of new subordinate lodges be paid to the D. D. G. M. in whose district the lodge was established. I believe that this has encouraged these officers, and that at least one of the lodges instituted recently is directly traceable to the District Deputy, because of the assurance of being repaid for his expenses and compensated for his time. We should continue this as long as it shall inspire extra effort by our Deputies. However, I suggest that when some other than such Deputy shall be the means of causing a lodge to be established, he should receive the fee; and, further, that if a Deputy shall make no effort or have no part in the starting of a lodge it is not contemplated by the resolution that he should be entitled to such fee.

Conclusion.

I am of the opinion that this will be one of our best terms in net gain. My information is that a greater proportion of our lodges are doing work, and some of the classes admitted have been unprecedented. I instituted a system of monthly postal card reports, and it is a great satisfaction to me, and probably will benefit the lodges, to know what each lodge is doing, if anything, each month. To summarize, I believe we will all be pleased at the showing that will be made at the end of the term.

Sincerely and fraternally,

W.S F. Leed

Grand Secretary.

George P. Bornwasser, G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

No. 1348.

Harrison R. Huckstep vs. Rose Lodge, No. 638.

Opinion by F. F. Fulling, P. G.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

This is an appeal from a Committee of Past Grands upon a claim for benefits by appellant from appellee lodge to which he belonged.

On November 20, 1909, Brother Huckstep had his arm injured in a corn shredder. Blood poisoning set in and on December 5, 1909, his arm was amputated near the shoulder. He was also troubled with gall stones and kidney trouble. His lodge paid him $21 sick benefits at the rate of $3 per week to January 15, 1910, when he was reported better. On January 22, 1910, he was, by a vote of the lodge, "declared as non-beneficial." On March 19, 1910, he asked to be restored to benefits and the matter was referred to the relief committee of the lodge. On March 26, 1910. his petition to be restored to benefits was, by a vote of the lodge, laid on the table. On April 9, 1910, he presented his claim for $30 sick benefits claimed to be due him. A motion was made to allow the claim, which was lost for the want of a second. On April 30, 1910, he appealed to a Committee of Past Grands. The cause was submitted to the committee for trial on Nevember 26, 1910, who heard the evidence and on December 17, 1910, filed their report in which they find as follows:

"The said Committee of Past Grands finds that Brother Harrison R. Huckstep, who was then and for several years had been a third degree member in good standing, was injured in a corn shredder on November 20, 1909; that he gave the defendant lodge immediate notice of such injury and that he has been sick and injured and unable to earn a livelihood from said 20th day of November, 1909. That he was entitled to $63. That he has been paid $21. That there is still due him $42."

The contention of appellant is that the Past Grands Committee, upon the evidence and its finding, should have allowed him benefits up to the date of trial, November 26, 1910, a period of fifty-two weeks, at the rate of $3 per week, making a total of $156, of which $21 has been paid, leaving a balance of $135 still due him.

The Past Grands Committee finds that the appellant has been sick and injured and unable to earn a livelihood from November 20, 1909. It will be observed that the finding does not state to what time, whether to the time of trial or some other time. If to the time of trial, then the amount found to be due the appellant is erroneous. For, as the record and evidence before us indicates, the appellee lodge paid $3 per week sick benefits, exclusive of the first week, as long as the brother is sick or injured and unable to earn a livelihood. Therefore, if it was intended by the Past Grands Committee to find that the appellee was so disabled to the time of trial, November 26, 1910, they should have allowed him for 52 weeks, or $156, with a credit of $21, leaving a balance of $135 still due him. Instead of this, they find that he was entitled to $63, of which he had been paid $21 and there is still due him $42.

Now, taking the figures as the basis of reasoning, to what time did the committee allow him benefits? The appellant's claim, as stated, was for $30, which was not amended to include the time after it was filed to the date of trial. The committee finds in his favor for $12 more than his claim. It heard all the evidence up to the time of trial and without doubt it had a right, if it saw fit, to allow the benefits to the very day of trial; but the amount they allowed clearly shows that they did not do so. The amount fixed would indicate that they only allowed him benefits to April 30, 1910, a period of twenty-one weeks, and not to the time of trial. They do actually allow him for some of the time elapsed between the time of filing his claim and date of trial.

The record is quite voluminous, consisting of forty pages of record proper and eighty-three pages of typewritten testimony. Able counsel were employed, who tried the cause, filed briefs and the cause was argued orally before us. We have carefully considered this cause and are unanimously of the opinion that the finding of the Past Grands Committee is so ambiguous, indefinite and uncertain that it is impossible to determine therefrom what they really intended or did decide. To attempt to render any judgment thereon might do great violence to the intention of the committee and perhaps work great hardship upon one or the other of these litigants. The lodge seems to be dissatisfied with the finding, since it is shown by the record that it refused to pay the amount fixed by the committee. The appellant is dissatisfied and asks a reversal of the cause.

In view of what has been said, we feel that the ends of justice will be best subserved and possible injury avoided by granting a new trial of this cause. We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, That this cause be and the same is hereby in all things reversed and a new trial granted.

Respectfully submitted,

H. F. FULLING. R. W. McBRIDE. GEORGE SHIRTS. D. J. TROYER. U. Z. WILEY.

[Above report No. 1348 amended by adding the following to the Resolution: "Said new trial shall be had before a new committee of Past Grands, to be selected under Section 241, General Laws, 1910; and leave is given the plaintiff to amend his complaint if he shall so desire."—See action on report.]

No. 1,349.

Aaron Madden vs. Scalesville Lodge, No. 816.

Opinion by U. Z. Wiley, P. G. Rep.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

This case can be disposed of in few words, considering the state of the evidence, but as there are so many irregularities, and the questions of practice are of general interest to the lodges throughout the State, we have deemed it important, and expedient, to treat the subject fully.

October 8th, 1910, at a regular meeting of the lodge, a grievance, or complaint, against appellant, was handed to the Noble Grand, and at such meeting an investigating committee was appointed and grievance referred to them.

January 7th, 1911, the investigating committee reported in open lodge, and preferred charges against appellant, as follows:

- (1) Conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow;
- (2) By associating with other women;
- (3) By separation from his wife, on or about the first of July, 1910.

Subsequently a trial committee and a prosecutor for the lodge was appointed. January 27th, 1911, the secretary furnished the accused with a copy of the charges, and read to him a summons notifying him of the time and place of the meeting of the trial committee, to hear evidence.

Trial committee met February 11th, 1911, at 10 o'clock a.m., and held that the charges were not sufficiently specific, and referred them back to the Noble Grand.

The Noble Grand thereupon appointed another investigating committee, and referred the charges to them for amendment. One of the members of this investigating committee was the attorney formerly appointed to prosecute the case on behalf of the lodge.

This committee immediately amended the charges and turned them over to the Noble Grand, and he immediately delivered them to the trial committee. The only amendment made was by adding the words "without cause" to the third specification.

The trial committee proceeded with the trial, heard the evidence, and found each of the specifications of the charges sustained.

Such proceedings were subsequently had as that the report of the committee was submitted to the lodge, and the appellant expelled. In his statement of appeal, appellant charges:

First. That a copy of the charges upon which he was tried was not furnished to him;

Second. That he did not have any lawful notice of the trial; and,

Third. That no attorney was appointed for him to represent him in his absence.

The record shows that the first investigating committee was appointed on the night of the meeting of the lodge, when the grievance of complaint was delivered to the Noble Grand. This is in direct violation of Sec. 184 of the General Laws, in which it is provided that "The complaint so made and delivered to the Noble Grand shall, at the next regular meeting thereafter, be referred to an investigating committee."

Again: The first investigating committee was appointed October 8th, 1910, and did not report until January 7th, 1911. Sec. 184, supra, provides that: "Such committee shall, without delay, investigate such charges and report thereon not later than four weeks after appointment. * * * If such committee makes no report, within the time fixed, it shall be discharged and another committee appointed.

The investigating committee not having reported within the time fixed by law, but two months after that time had expired, it was without authority to act at any subsequent date.

The committee became "functus officio." It follows, therefore, that it acted without authority, and without such authority it could not legally prefer charges.

In view of the fact that the investigating committee did not act within the time fixed by law, and that the charges as preferred by it did not state any offense whatever, the accused was justified in ignoring them, and his failure to attend the trial cannot be regarded as wilful on his part.

This brings us to the consideration of the question, presented by the action of the trial committee, in holding that the original charges were not sufficiently considered, and turning them back to the Noble Grand, and the appointment by him of another investigating committee for amendment.

Trial committee met February 11th, at 10 o'clock a.m. The lodge was not in session, and yet the Noble Grand proceeded to appoint an investigating committee.

The Noble Grand of the Lodge is only authorized to act officially when his lodge is in session. He can only appoint an investigating committee "by and with the approval of the lodge." (Section 184, supra.)

The lodge, not being in session, could not approve his action in appointing an investigating committee.

We, therefore, are constrained to hold that such appointment of the investigating committee to amend the charges was without warrant and illegal, and such amended charges, under such circumstances, were not sufficient to put the accused on trial.

The record also shows that one of the members of a second investigating committee was the person who had been appointed attorney for the lodge to prosecute the case. This is equivalent to making the prosecutor of the lodge an inquisitor for and on behalf of the lodge, to bring charges against the brother whom he is to prosecute. This is so manifestly unjust and irregular that it cannot be upheld.

The appellant was not present at the trial, but was within the jurisdiction of the lodge, and, under these circumstances, it was the duty of the Noble Grand to appoint an attorney to represent him. This was not done. Sec. 236 of the General Laws requires that it should be done, and as this Grand Lodge has held that provision of the statute mandatory, the failure to appoint of itself, if all other matters had been regular, is sufficient to reverse the case. (See Session 1889, page 1130.) (See also Session 1901, pages 2117, 2126.)

Even on a plea of guilty, it has been held that under such circumstances it is the duty of the Noble Grand to appoint an attorney for the accused. (See Session 1897, page 246.)

We have discussed and decided all of these questions, not because it was necessary for a final disposition of the case, so far as the Grand Lodge was concerned, but to the end that what we have said may serve as a guide, not only for appellee's lodge, but all lodges in this jurisdiction.

The statute relating to preferring charges against a member of the order, and the manner in which trials should be conducted, is couched in very plain language, and might easily be followed if proper care should be observed.

We therefore recommend that the judgment be reversed, that appellant be restored to membership, and that the lodge, if it so desires, may proceed under he statute, to prefer charges against appellant, and for further proceedings, in harmony with the statute and this opinion.

Anton Frontero vs. Unity Lodge, No. 827.

No record has been filed in this case. The only papers before your committee are a notice of appeal addressed to Unity Lodge, made out in proper form and properly signed, and a letter addressed to the Grand Secretary, stating that a notice of appeal, of which that transmitted is a copy, was duly filed with the Secretary of Unity Lodge February 7th, 1911, and that the lodge has taken no action. The writer says that it is an Italian lodge and probably needs instruction.

We respectfully recommend that the Grand Secretary be instructed to write Unity Lodge calling attention to Sections 249 and 250 of the general law and instructing its officers to proceed as the law directs.

The semi-annual supplementary report of the Home Directors was submitted and referred to the Home Committee, as follows:

SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT ON THE HOME.

Supplemental Report.

Mrs. Mary S. Lewis, Superintendent and Dr. J. H. Alexander, Home physician, submit the following semi-annual supplemental report to the Annual Report of the Home Directors, made in November, 1910:

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

The days and mnths go by bringing changes in many ways in our large family, some come, others go, death does its work among our adults, the children go out into families and some back to their parents. There is 136 in the Home ranging in ages from 2½ years to past 93. There are 54 men, 34 women, 28 boys and 20 girls.

Deaths: Henry Steinmetz, Nov. 22, 1910; Thomas Hague, Dec. 8, 1910; B. T. Swift, Jan. 26, 1911; Mary Donahoo, Feb. 5, 1911; Robert Westphal, March 18, 1911; Jacob Espee, March 26, 1911; Hiram Burlingame, Apr. 27, 1911.

The time has been full of varied experiences that come in this line of work. We have been giving the best care to our sorely afflicted Brothers and Sisters. Have endeavored to have system and regularity among those who are able to be about and attend to their own needs. The children who are old enough have attended school regularly; one of our boys, Clyde Sullivan, will graduate from the Greensburg High School. Had an epidemic of chicken pox, all recovered nicely. No serious sickness among the children; all are looking well. We have done considerable interior decorating which has made an improvement both in appearance and sanitary conditions. We are building a shed for our farm implements, also some hog houses, will do some fencing. buildings have never been repainted, so at this time men are at work on them. We planted some early garden which depsite the rains and cold weather looks well. We killed 45 hogs which made a good supply of meat and 2,000 lbs. of lard, sold $352.00 worth. Have on hand 4 sows, 21 good-sized shoats, 26 small pigs. We endeavor to keep up all needed repairs about buildings and farm. Fraternally,

MARY SMITH LEWIS.

GREENSBURG, IND., May 1st, 1911.

To the Board of Directors of the I. O. O. F. Home of Indiana:

There are at this date, May 1st, 1911, as guests at the Home, 54 adult males and 34 females; 28 boys and 20 girls, a total of 136.

There were seven deaths during the last six months, one from age and debility, aged 84 years, male; one from cardiac and pulmonary asthma, male 73 years; one from tuberculosis, aged 60, male; one from locomotor-ataxia, aged 54 years, female; one from stenosis of oesophagus and resultant inanition, aged 69, male; one from senility and general debility, aged 77, male; one from age and general debility following fracture of neck of femur, aged 80, male.

There are eighty-seven people between fifty and ninety-three years. Fifty-four over seventy years. Of this number, fifteen have rheumatism, seven disease of the lungs, three totally blind, eight disease of the heart, five with dropsy, two cripples going on crutches, ten cases of senile dementia, eight with impaired vision or hearing, four injuries; three well developed cancer; three hernias complete; five general debility marked; three locomotorataxia verging on paralysis; one cardiac and pulmonary asthma; five cases of arterio sclerosis, (marked).

Of the eight children mentioned in my last report as being under observation and treatment, one was returned to parents, one better and placed in a good home, five apparently well and one still under care. The children recently admitted have shown no cachexia or evidence of hereditary disease. There has been but little acute disease among the children in the last six months, and, as formerly stated, no deaths among the children in the Home since its establishment. The sanitary condition of the Home is good. There have been no complaints entered for neglect of duty against any of the attendants. Don't think there is any cause for any.

Respectfully,

J. H. ALEXANDER.

H. C. Clippinger, P. G. Chaplain, announced that information had just been received of the death of A. D. Mohler, and, on his motion, the Grand Secretary was directed to send a telegram message of condolence to the members of his family at Huntington, Ind. The instructions were promptly complied with.

The Grand Secretary reported that Grand Sire Cockrum was present in the building, and, on his motion, a committee consisting of M. A. Chipman, P. G. Rep.; Edwin Farrer, P. G. Rep., and Eller E. Pryor, P. G. Rep., to call on the Grand Sire and introduce him to the Grand Lodge, which was done, and he was welcomed most cordially with fraternal greetings.

On motion, it was ordered that the various committees be permitted to file their reports this afternoon, to be printed and taken up for consideration at the first session tomorrow.

Before adjournment the Grand Master called on the Grand Sire, who responded briefly in kind words of encouragement and greetings to the membership of the Grand Lodge. The Grand Master then introduced Bro. James Ewing Davis, Grand Master of Illinois, who spoke eloquently and cordially, extending the most kindly and fraternal good wishes of his Jurisdiction.

The following reports were laid upon the table:

[No. 1.]

By Wm. C. Cronan, P. G., from the Committee on Petitions and Applications, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of John I. Clark and six other brothers of Kentland Lodge, No. 396, of Kentland, Newton county, to resuscitate the same, beg leave to report that we have carefully considered the same and would recommend that the action of the Grand Master be approved.

[No. 2.]

By Fred. A. Stewart, P. G., from the same committee, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

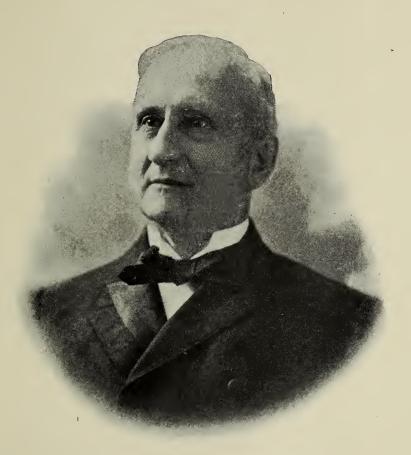

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of certain persons to establish a lodge at Cuzco, Daviess County, to be known as Cuzco Lodge, No. 877, have carefully considered the same and approve the action of the Grand Master in granting the dispensation, and recommend that a charter be granted in lieu thereof.

[No. 3.]

By Morton Brown, P. G., from the same committee, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, beg leave to report on the application of Brother George Lonnon, of New Albany Lodge, No. 1, that we have carefully considered same and recommend that appeal for aid from this lodge to the brother be not granted.

CHARLES C. BINKLEY
GRAND MASTER, 1889-90

[No. 4.]

By S. L. Fenner, P. G., from the same committee, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of Camden Lodge, No. 151, for permission to solicit aid from sister lodges, would respectfully report that we have had the same under consideration. We recommend that the petition be not granted for the reason that we are without any information as to the extent of the efforts put forth by the lodge to provide itself with a lodge hall, nor as to the amount of its resources, liabilities or income.

[No. 5.]

By J. T. Arbuckle, P. G., from the same committee, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the application of Gentryville Lodge, No. 621, asking permission to solicit aid from sister lodges, would respectfully report that we have had the same under consideration; we find that said lodge has a membership of 40, and cash on hand, $1,062.26, and after careful investigation, we are of the opinion that said lodge can procure a home without aid if the membership will put forth the proper effort. We therefore recommend that the petition be not granted.

[No. 6.]

Also the following:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of Alva W. Benbow and others for the establishment of a subordinate lodge at Shideler, Delaware county, to be known as Nonpareil Lodge, No. 875, beg leave to report that we have had same under consideration and recommend that a charter be issued and that the action of the Grand Master in granting the dispensation be approved.

[5-G 105]

[No. 7.]

Also the following:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of Brother H. A. Reed and others for the establishment of a subordinate lodge at Fort Ritner, Lawrence county, to be known as Fort Ritner Lodge, No. 876, beg leave to report that we have had the same under consideration and recommend that the action of the Grand Master, in issuing dispensation, be approved and that a charter be issued.

[No. 8.]

By Wm. C. Cronan, P. G., from the same committee, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of L. Otis Davis, of Spurgeon Lodge, No. 582, of Spurgeon, Ind., beg leave to report as follows: We have carefully considered the petition of Brother L. Otis Davis to solicit aid, and would recommend that the same be granted.

[No. 9.]

By Fred. A. Stewart, P. G., from the same committee, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to appeals for aid, approve his action on the subject.

[No. 10.]

By S. O. Sharp, P. G., from the Committee on By-Laws, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on By-Laws, to whom was referred the report of the Deputy Grand Master regarding his action in relation to the By-Laws and amendments to By-Laws of certain subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, beg leave to report that we approve of his actions therein and recommend the approval of his action by the Grand Lodge. We also call attention to the concluding paragraph of his report and urge upon the lodges the importance of obeying this part of the General Laws.

[No. 11.]

By Elmer E. Hastings, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on Judiciary, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, would report after due consideration, that the answer to Decision No. 19 should be "yes," as in the opinion of this committee, according to section 141 of the General Laws, 1910, it is mandatory for a lodge to pay funeral expenses.

[No. 12.]

Also the following:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, would report that we examined Questions and Answers Nos. 17, 18, 20, 21 and 22, and find them correct.

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to which was referred decision numbered one (1) of the Grand Master which question reads as follows:

"Is a dispensation issued in person, or by telephone, legal?" beg to report that we have considered the same and are of the opinion the answer should be "Yes."

By J. Frank Mann, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to which was referred decision No. 15 of the Grand Master, reading as follows:

Statement: A brother wishing to become a member of another lodge, files his certificate; is balloted on December the 30th, but does not sign the constitution until March the 10th.

Q. When should the brother's dues commence?

Ans. From the time of his election.

respectfully report that there has also been referred to us a communication from Burnett's Creek Lodge, No. 740, covering the same subject and asking the additional question whether in such case the new lodge would be liable to pay funeral expense on account of the death of the brother's wife, which occurred about March 1st, but before he had signed the constitution of the new lodge.

Under the transfer law, Sec. 67, General Laws, revision 1910, a brother applying for membership by transfer certificate, does not become a member of the new lodge until he shall have appeared and signed the constitution of the new lodge. If he delays such signing from Dec. 30th to March 10th, as the decision and communication indicate, he is under no obligation to pay dues to the new lodge until March 10th, and the new lodge (Burnett's Creek Lodge, No. 740), was, during that time, under no obligation to pay sick benefits or funeral expense. The issue of a transfer certificate to the brother severed his membership in his old lodge, subject, however, to his right, should he become sick within four weeks, to retain his membership in his old lodge. If he does not appear in the new lodge within the four weeks and sign its constitution he does not have membership in either lodge. That fact will not estop him perfecting his membership later in the new lodge. But the new lodge has, in the meantime, taken upon itself no financial obligations to the brother. In our opinion the answer of the Grand Master to decision No. 15 should have read, "From the date he signs the constitution in the new lodge," and the answer to the communication from Burnett's Creek Lodge should be, "Burnett's Creek Lodge is under no obligation to pay funeral expense on account of the death of the brother's wife."

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to which was referred decision No. 14 of the Grand Master, reading as follows:

Q. 15. A brother dies; relief committee draws warrant in favor of widow; she fails to pay funeral expenses; can a party owed by the widow sue the lodge for the amount?

Ans. I know of no law preventing them from suing the lodge, but under our law they could not recover, as our law provides that funeral expenses must be paid first to the widow; if none, then to the orphans dependent.

report that we have carefully considered the decision and find the same incorrect in part. We do not decide the question whether or not the lodge would be required to again pay out the funeral expenses, but it is clear to us that, under the latest revision of the General Laws, the lodge was in error in paying the funeral expenses to the widow. The Grand Master has evidently had in mind the law as it existed prior to the revision of 1910. Sec. 138, Revision 1910, requires the amount paid by the lodge to be appropriated and used solely for the purpose of defraying expenses of the burial, and the relief committee is enjoined to see that the amount is so used. Formerly the law permitted a lodge to pay the amount first to the widow, then second to dependent orphans. But lodges should understand that such is not now the law. As to whether there is a legal obligation existing between a lodge and an undertaker that will require the lodge to again appropriate the amount and pay it to the undertaker, we do not decide. question is a proper one for the Committee on Grievances and Appeals if presented to that committee in the proper legal manner. Inasmuch as the payment of funeral expenses is an act which occurs frequently, we wish to caution lodges that they require their relief committees to follow strictly sections 138 and 139 of the General Laws, Revision of 1910.

We, your Committee on Judiclary, to which was referred Decision No. 16 of the Grand Master, report as follows:

Q. 17. Is a brother who has not been a contributing member six months entitled to watchers in case he requires them?

Ans. Yes. See Grand Lodge Proceedings, 1893, pages 1627 and respectfully report that the last sentence of Section 126, General Laws, Revision 1910, relative to attentive benefits, reads as follows:

"The qualifications for attentive benefits shall be the same as for sick benefits."

By the law relative to sick benefits the brother must have been a member six months before being entitled to same, hence during the same period, by the provision of law above quoted, he is not entitled to attentive benefits or watchers. However, we are sure that the lack of legal liability to furnish watchers will not make us forget the lesson of the Good Samaritan.

THURSDAY—MORNING SESSION.

Indianapolis, May 18, 1911.

The Grand Lodge met at 8:30 a.m. pursuant to adjournment, J. M. Stipp, Grand Master, presiding.

The Grand Secretary reported a quorum present.

After prayer by the Grand Chaplain and singing the opening ode, by order of the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master declared the Grand Lodge open for the transaction of business.

The roll of Grand Officers was called and noted present as follows:

- J. M. STIPP, Grand Master.
- J. L. HARMAN, Deputy Grand Master.
- H. W. CARPENTER, Grand Warden.
- W. H. LEEDY, Grand Secretary.
- W. A. MORRIS, Grand Treasurer.
- A. L. MILLER, Grand Representative.
- G. P. BORNWASSER, Grand Representative.
- CORNELIUS AIRHART, Grand Chaplain.
- G. P. BORNWASSER, Grand Instructor.
- W. W. SWANK, Grand Marshal.
- C. J. ROBB, Grand Conductor.
- E. M. REILY, Grand Guardian.
- W. H. TAYLOR, Grand Herald.
- G. G. SHERWOOD, Assistant Grand Herald.
- GEORGE W. BONE, Assistant Grand Guardian.
- HORACE TERRY, Assistant Grand Guardian.
- BENJ. FRANKLIN, Grand Trustee.
- M. A. CHIPMAN, Grand Trustee.
- E. G. HOGATE, Grand Trustee.

On motion of A. L. Miller, G. Rep., the reading of the minutes of yesterday's session was dispensed with. Bro. A. Clark, of Illinois, visited the Grand Lodge on card, after examination by a committee and formal introduction to the Body.

A. L. Miller, G. Rep., from the Committee on the State of the Order, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report referring to District Deputy Grand Masters, heartly endorse all that has been said by our Grand Master, and would recommend that the District Deputies devote whatever time is necessary to make their work a success. This can be done by working hand in hand with the Grand Master and keeping in touch with each and every lodge in their district. We recognize the fact that the office of District Deputy is one of the most important offices in this Grand Body, and that the growth of our Order throughout the State depends largely on their individual efforts.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report in regard to county meetings, heartily endorse everything that has been said by our Grand Master, and suggest that his recommendation in regard to dividing the State into thirteen districts, the same as Congressional districts, and that the District Deputies of the various counties in each Congressional district unite in having at least one meeting in said district each year, and that in arranging such meeting, that it be arranged at a time and a place where and when the Grand Master can attend, and that it shall become a part of the duty of the Grand Master to attend such district meeting when held.

We recognize the fact that it is almost impossible for the Grand Master to attend the county meetings in each and every county in the State, and by dividing the State into districts in the manner above suggested, it gives him an opportunity to visit each section of the State during his term of office.

We also heartily endorse the suggestion of the Grand Master, that the expenses of these meetings be borne by the various lodges of said district.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relative to the complete statistics of Lodges Nos. 171 to 230, inclusive, have had same under consideration and find that said statistics are very valuable information to the lodges above referred to, and we hope that our Grand Secretary will continue this good work until he has compiled a complete statistical report for each and every lodge in this Jurisdiction; and this Grand Lodge is to be congratulated upon the fact that our Grand Secretary is performing this valuable service for each and every lodge in the State without additional compensation. We would recommend that, upon the completion of this statistical report of each and every lodge, all of said reports be published in one volume in the Proceedings of this Grand Lodge.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report in regard to the question of new lodges, heartily endorse what has been said by our worthy Grand Secretary. We believe that it was a wise act when this Grand Lodge passed a resolution paying to the District Deputies the charter fee for instituting new lodges in their district, and that this resolution should be made broader, so that in case the District Deputy is not responsible for the institution of the new lodge, and this work is done by one who is not a district deputy, that the charter fee be paid to the party who does the work.

W. I. Hughes, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to the special letter sent to dropped members that were reported by the secretaries, beg to report that we have considered the same and are of the opinion that he should be commended for this work, as we believe that the next reports will show many reinstatements and a less number of dropped members. We recommend that when said reports are received if, in the judgment of the Grand Secretary, the reward was sufficient to justify the labor and expense, that he continue the good work.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to dedications, have considered the same and respectfully report that we are pleased to know that there has been four new buildings dedicated to the principles of Oddfellowship since our last meeting. And we sincerely hope that there will be many more lodge halls erected and dedicated to the principles of Friendship, Love, Truth, Faith, Hope and Charity before we meet again in November. We are also of the opinion that every building erected by our Order for lodge purposes should be officially and formally dedicated in accordance with the ceremonies prescribed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and that every such dedication should be under the direct supervision and control of the Grand Master, or his deputy, who alone has the authority to officially dedicate, or cause to be dedicated, such lodge buildings.

W. C. Goldsberry, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report regarding the holding of a special meeting of this Grand Lodge Monday, September 18th, for the exclusive purpose of conferring the Grand Lodge Degree on such members as shall appear for that purpose. Mileage and per diem should not be paid for such session.

Your committee, having had the same under consideration, recommend that such special session be and is hereby ordered.

Howard Smith, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to veteran jewels, having had the same under consideration, would report as follows: The list of names as given by our Grand Secretary shows us that there are fifty-four brothers and six sisters that have been walking in the pathway of Friendship, Love and Truth for twenty-five years or more, evidencing to us that the pathways of Friendship, Love and Truth, though with more or less obstructions therein, have been largely strewn with flowers, and to those faithful workers this Grand Lodge would say, "God bless each and every one of them."

Jacob Joel, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to the Odd Fellows Talisman, heartly endorse the words of our Grand Master, recommending same to all Odd Fellows, and wish for the Talisman unbounded success. We believe it to be the greatest fraternal publication in the world and should be encouraged by, and have the support of, the entire membership in the great work in which we are all so deeply interested—the upbuilding of our magnificent Order.

J. R. Andrews, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Secretary's report relating to the "Grand Sire Banner and Cup," submit the following:

In the race to secure the banner and cup offered by the Grand Sire, we believe Indiana will be in the forefront. While a number of Jurisdictions are handicapped in this race, and a few have some advantages over us, yet the race is open to all. With a George Rogers in every district, supported by a united and willing membership, we expect to perfect a clear title to the cup and banner.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report relating to lodges, submit the following: We are pleased to note the increase in interest and zeal among lodges throughout the Jurisdiction; in some lodges, a great gain in membership; in others, not so much. We are glad to see the recognition in our Grand Master's report of Lodges No. 465 and No. 15, both on account of new members and the prominence of the individuals. are represented in one lodge by a man of international reputation and in the other by the most zealous and enthusiastic member known in the Order. We also commend the example in presenting the initiate with some token to distinguish him from the outsider and showing substantial appreciation of the lodge worker's efforts. If we are to gain and hold in membership, both in number and quality, we must eliminate divisions and dissensions. We heartily endorse the advice of the Grand Master.

E. E. Pryor, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's report entitled Bargers-ville Lodge, beg leave to report that since the question therein propounded involves a legal proposition, your committee has not the power to pass upon the same, and have requested the Judiciary Committee to consider and report on the same, which said request has been kindly granted and the report therein will be made by said committee.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on the State of the Order, to whom was referred that part of our Grand Master's report entitled "Rituals," beg leave to report: That the penalty for the taking of a ritual from a lodge room is prescribed by law. The officers and members of a lodge should use every means at their command to prevent the violation of a law so vital to our Order, and which they have each obligated themselves to obey. Even though the purpose of taking the ritual from the lodge room be the perfection of the member in the work of the Order, it is nevertheless prohibited, and Noble Grands should absolutely refuse the request of a member who would ask such officer to violate his obligation. The officer and member so offending should receive the full benefit of the penalty prescribed, for it is only by the observance of our laws that the Order will flourish. This applies with equal force to all books in the possession of members, forbidden by our laws. Representatives to this Grand Lodge are requested to call the attention of the officers and members of their lodge to this report and the report of our Grand Master on this subject, which your committee heartily approves.

The rough treatment of a candidate is prohibited by our laws and finds no sanction among the membership who desire the perfection of our ritualistic work. It is foreign to the lessons sought to be impressed, and the officers of a lodge who permit any rough treatment of a candidate fail to encompass the intendment of our degree work, fail to properly impress the candidate, violate the laws of the Order and bring reproach, where otherwise good, impressive, lasting, live, active, energetic members might be properly inducted into the Order. If you are guilty, let's quit it.

W. H. Andrews, P. G., from the Committee on Rebekah Degree, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Rebekah Degree, to which that portion of the report of the Grand Secretary relative to defunct and delinquent Rebekah Lodges was referred, report as follows:

We believe this is at least one of the hardest problems we, as an Order, are compelled to face. We feel that the taking up of the charters of Burns City, No. 688; Leona, No. 574; Sarah Ann, No. 588, was just, as they could have done the Order no good, as they seem to have lost all interest. But we hope that in the near future they may be brought to see the error of their ways and again be active, earnest members of our grand organization.

We find twenty lodges reported delinquent-some one year, some two. If every effort of the Grand Master, President of Rebekah Assembly and District Deputy Grand Masters has been put forth and failed, we see no good reason for longer work with them; but if these officers have not used all the influence in their power, or perhaps given all the attention and assistance possible, as needed by these weaker ones in our ranks, we would suggest care and tenderness in their handling, for once lost to us they may never be reclaimed, and we desire to keep all we have, if possible, to help us regain our former position. We realize that letters have been written and in some instances, perhaps, visits made, but to save life, even of a lodge, more persistent efforts are needed than just one visit. We must help them to live, not just put them on their feet, only to fall at the stumbling block, but keep before them the fact that we are always ready to help, and to help them with our personal efforts, even though it may be a little inconvenient or even expensive to us.

E. G. Hogate, P. G. Rep., from the Memorial Committee on the death of H. J. McSheehy, made the following report, which was considered and adopted by a unanimous vote, the members standing in silence:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your committee appointed to present a memorial on the death of Henry J. McSheehy, respectfully submits the following:

Bro. Henry James McSheehy was born in Lafayette, Ind., in 1854, and was in his 57th year at the time of his death. After his preparatory work he entered Yale University, where he remained one year and then became purser on an ocean liner plying between New York and Liverpool. After two years of service on the New York Herald, he came to Logansport, Ind., and established a weekly paper, which he continued to own and edit until his death, February 21, 1911. Brother McSheehy left him surviving a wife and three sons—Harry, Harold and Lloyd, the latter a lieutenant in the U. S. navy.

[6-G 105]

The lodge life of deceased, and his various positions in the Order are as follows:

Initiated into Logan Lodge, No. 40, March 8, 1875.

Member of Cass Encampment, No. 119.

Member of Logansport Canton, No. 15.

Purity Rebekah Lodge, No. 127.

Trustee of Logan Lodge, No. 40.

Entered the Grand Lodge November 20, 1889.

Grand Patriarch, 1908-1909.

Grand Representative Sovereign Grand Lodge, 1910.

For years member of Committee of Finance and Accounts in Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment.

Member of Building Committee at the time of the erection of this building, and at the time of his death was a member of the general committee for the entertainment of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the World, to meet in this city in September next.

These items but feebly express the work and adherence of Brother McSheehy as an Odd Fellow. He, like all the rest of the Order, did his substantial work, not in the limelight of official position, but in that quiet, peaceful way that so becomes a fraternal brother or a benefactor of his race.

It is given to but few men to fill so many important places in the Order; but at all times he worked intelligently and diligently; and wherever the brotherhood called him to go, or whatever it called him to do, he went and did it with that intelligent uprightness that characterizes the one who believes in the gospel he preaches. If our departed brother had one trait more developed than another, it was intensity of purpose. If he conceived a proposition was for the good of the fraternity he threw his whole soul into the enterprise until the project became a reality. the thing proposed was not for the substantial improvement of the Order, or had the slightest tinge of doubt as to its honesty of purpose, all the intensity of his nature was aroused to secure its overthrow. Thus he never sought the middle ground; he was for or against, and those things secured by his efforts were things that were altogether good. His position in the Order and his known qualities of candor and uprightness made him one of the strong men in this Jurisdiction of 80,000 members.

There is no occasion here to draw the veil to shut out any part of the life. His life was in the open. It was full, rounded and honest. The clasp of his hand was that of a brother; his word was that of encouragement; his acts charitable. The Divine Being ordains that all lives shall, in some measure, reflect the divine image; to some it is very small, to some greater; to our brother was accorded the privilege of standing four square for good things and accomplishing them. So, while he was cut off in the years when men are able to accomplish most, he nevertheless reflected in a high degree the best attributes of the Author of our being.

Our brother was a good husband, a good father, a good citizen, a good Odd Fellow. Do not these virtues entitle him to our esteem and veneration? Who can gather a greater garland of right-eousness than to so live that when death comes it can be said, "a good husband, a good father, a good citizen possessed of civic virtues and heavenly gifts."

Six months ago our brother stood in this place in this lodge performing his fraternal duties. Today in the same place we are commemorating his virtues. How short is life; how imminent is death. But the twinkle of an eye; but the gasp of a breath, and man passes from out this life of realities to the land of shadows and silence. If our brother had faults, it is charity to close the mind against them; if he had virtues, we may profitably imitate them.

To his family we offer nothing but sorrowing hearts and the fraternal hand—and in this great calamity these same are empty offerings—but above this, and above all that we can say or do is the consolation to them that his was a life well spent.

Your committee recommends that this memorial be adopted, and the Lodge stand with bowed head.

Fraternally submitted,

ENOCH G. HOGATE, C. F. NORTHERN, EDWIN FARRER.

Edwin Farrer, P. G. Rep., from the Memorial Committee on the death of A. D. Mohler, made the following report, which was considered and adopted by standing vote:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Your Special Committee would respectfully offer the following: Those of us who have been privileged to attend regularly the sessions of this Grand Body year after year look forward to the times of meeting with very pleasant anticipations as to seasons of delightful fraternal and social intercourse with those faithful workers from all sections of the State, whom we have learned to know and love as the leaders and pillars of our beloved fraternity in Indiana, whose familiar forms and faces we expect to see whenever this Grand Lodge assembles. We have many such zealous, self-sacrificing brothers in this Grand Jurisdiction upon whom we have learned to confidently rely for the performance of the arduous and expert labor necessarily connected with the business of this Grand Lodge, and when any of them fail to appear at the opening of a session we experience a feeling of surprise and disappointment. Such has been our experience at this session. Some of our ablest and best beloved assistants in the work of the Grand Lodge are not here and will never again fill the places they have occupied in the past.

One who was chairman of one of the standing committees of this Grand Body at its last session and who has served faithfully and efficiently on many committees during the past thirty years is absent and a telegram has informed us that Brother Alonzo D. Mohler, of Huntington, passed away at 3:45 P. M. Tuesday, May 16, 1911.

Brother Mohler was initiated into the mysteries of Odd Fellowship in Lafontaine Lodge, No. 42, September 16, 1873, in his 23d year, and during all the succeeding years has been an active laborer in the vineyard of Odd Fellowship. He was one of the first to advocate the establishment of a Home for the aged and the orphans of the Order in Indiana, and was secretary of the first committee appointed to make provision for such a home, and as such did much to aid in the work that made the erection of the Home a possibility. He was for many years District Deputy Grand Master of Huntington County and one of the organizers and most enthusiastic members of the District Deputies' Association, of which organization he was vice-president. His zeal, energy and activity in the work of this Grand Lodge and his efforts for the promotion of the interests of the Order in all its branches, his genial nature, and many good qualities endeared him to the members of this Grand Body and to the Order at large. In appreciation of his life and character and of his work for the good of humanity we desire to place on record this brief tribute to his memory, and extend to his bereaved family and Lodge our sincere Fraternally submitted, sympathy.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Finance and Accounts, beg to report that we have examined the accounts and books of the Grand Treasurer, Grand Secretary, and Grand Lodge Hall Association, and find them to be correct and kept in excellent form.

J. M. Lang, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Finance and Accounts, has under consideration the following statement, to wit:

To the Committee on Finance and Accounts:

As is well known to all members of the Order in Indiana, a great many Grand Officers of other jurisdictions, and also Grand Representatives of other jurisdictions, from time to time visit the Grand Lodge of Indiana, and visit the city of Indianapolis on business with the Grand Officer, and for social purposes. On such occasions it is the part of hospitality that such visiting brothers should be entertained by this Grand Body.

I, therefore, petition your committee as follows: That there be a continuing appropriation of $200.00 per term, set aside for the purpose of properly entertaining visiting Grand Officers and Grand Representatives of other jurisdictions, and that said sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the above purpose, be subject to the order of the Grand Secretary, and that the Grand Secretary report each term the amount of such fund so expended.

Respectfully submitted,

ENOCH G. HOGATE, P. G. Rep.

We would respectfully report that after a careful investigation of the merits of the petition we recommend its adoption.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

The Grand Master announced that a committee from the Rebekah Assembly of Indiana desired to appear before the Grand Lodge. On motion a recess was ordered and Brothers Edwin Farrer, M. A. Chipman and J. Frank Mann, were appointed to introduce the visitors. Whereupon Sisters Lula B. Kean, President; Kate I. Nichols, Vice-President; Ida S. Van Dorin, Warden; Ella M. Clark, Secretary; Mary Stipp, Treasurer, and Arnetta Brehm and Mary A. Wiley, Past Presidents, were formally introduced to and welcomed by the Grand Lodge. The Deputy Grand Master presiding, the sisters were severally and formally introduced.

Sister Lula B. Kean, President, spoke as follows: Grand Master, Brothers of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows:

We, the elective officers of the Rebekah Assembly of Indiana, appear here before you at this time because you, through your great love and respect for our branch of this great Order of yours, have been good enough and kind enough to permit us, and even to invite us, to be present here with you; and we are not coming here, brothers, to find fault with you, or to beg you for money, but to thank you, brothers, for all of the manifold kindnesses you have, from time to time, and from year to year, bestowed upon us, and to suggest to you a few things in which we believe you will be interested, and in which, we believe, each and every one of your subordinate lodges will be interested.

The brothers of this Grand Lodge have never refused the Rebekah Assembly of Indiana a single thing, so far as I can learn, that it really needed and deserved, and we are here, brothers, to suggest to you a few needed changes in legislation, and to invite you to aid and assist us in establishing new Lodges, and in increasing the membership of our Degree.

Some good brother, a member of this Grand Lodge, at its last session, introduced the following amendment to your Constitution:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, the undersigned, propose that Section five (5), Article one (1), of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. Eligibility. No person shall be eligible to a seat in

Sec. 5. Eligibility. No person shall be eligible to a seat in this Grand Lodge unless he shall have served regularly as a Vice-Grand and Noble Grand at least one legal term in some subordinate lodge, except only in the case of the first Noble Grand and the first Vice-Grand of a new lodge, and also in case of a brother elected to fill an unexpired term of a Noble Grand or Vice-Grand where such election is permitted by general law; and also unless he shall be a member in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge. And these qualifications shall be, in all cases, certified to by the Noble Grand and Secretary of all lodges concerned, and sealed with the seal of the same before the Grand Lodge Degree shall be conferred upon any applicant for membership, or Representative-elect.

We are here, brothers, to urge you to adopt that amendment, because we feel that laws that would be better suited to the needs of our Degree and of our lodges could and would be enacted if each and every Representative here was a member of some Rebekah Lodge.

It seems to me that if it was the duty of the representatives of our Assembly to make laws for your subordinate lodges, that you brothers would very probably have some very poor laws, not because we would want to make bad laws for you, but because, not being members of your subordinate lodges, we would not know what you needed nor what would be best for your or their welfare.

You brothers know how to make good laws for Odd Fellows, yet if you should be called upon while you are here at this time to make some good laws for Knights of Pythias or the Ben Hurs, you would not attempt to do it, because you would say, "We know what our Odd Fellow lodges need because we belong to them, but as we are not members of the Knights of Pythias we can not make good laws for them. We don't know how often they meet, how many representatives they have, what dues they pay, nor what laws they need." And, my dear brothers, I am sure that that is just the way each one of you brothers feel who are not members of a Rebekah Lodge, when you come to make laws for the Rebekah Assembly and the Rebekahs of Indiana. And I expect that many good, true Odd Fellows who come here as representatives of their lodges, do not vote at all upon questions relative to the laws proposed for Rebekah Odd Fellowship, fearing that they may vote wrong if they vote at all upon the question, and so they sit by and perhaps let legislation pass that should not pass or defeat legislation that ought to be enacted.

So, brothers, it is not to force our Degree upon you, nor to compel you to become members of our Order, but it is to assist you in the work, which, under the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge you must enact for us, that we are urging these matters today.

We know that you could enact better laws for us if each and every representative to this Grand Lodge was a member in good standing of some Rebekah Lodge, and we trust, brothers, that when the time comes for you to vote upon this proposition, that you will adopt the proposed change and that hereafter, each and every representative who comes here will also be a member of some Rebekah Lodge.

Brothers, give this proposed legislation a trial, for awhile, at least, and if it is not satisfactory, then it can be changed.

Brothers, we sisters do not want to overburden you with our work. We appreciate more than we can tell you, everything this Grand Lodge and the Subordinate Lodges of this State have done for our Assembly, our Rebekah Lodges, and our Home at Greensburg. We can thank you for what you have done, but God alone can repay you for your unselfish service.

The D. D. G. M.'s of the counties having from five to fifteen or more Subordinate Lodges and from three to twelve or more Rebekah Lodges, really have more work to do and more expense to bear than many of them can afford.

Each D. D. G. M. ought to visit each of his Subordinate Lodges and each of his Rebekah Lodges at least once each term. To do this in many counties is a great sacrifice of time and money. Many lodges do not feel like paying anything toward the D. D. G. M.'s expenses, and some lodges even believe that the D. D. G. M.'s get good pay for visiting the lodges, while in truth many do not get one cent, but give their time and bear their own expense.

The D. D. G. M.'s have done a great work for Rebekah Odd Fellowship, and we thank them for it, but we believe the time has come when we sisters can aid and help the District Deputy Grand Masters in this matter; therefore we ask this Grand Lodge to introduce and enact a law whereby the President of the Rebekah Assembly may be empowered to appoint sisters as District Deputy Presidents of the Rebekah Lodges of Indiana.

We believe this will be a step forward, and a step that each and every District Deputy Grand Master will heartily approve.

Many times a sister can leave her home, make a visit, be entertained at some sister's home, and return without losing very much in either time or money. We are ready and willing to assume this burden, if this Grand Lodge will generously lay the burden upon us.

But, brothers, over and above all, I want to call your attention to the following facts, which I want you to remember, think over, and communicate to your subordinate lodges when you get home.

During the year ending December 31, 1910, 1,992 brothers were admitted, and during that same year we lost 2,068 brothers to our Degree. In other words, brothers, we lost last year, right here in Indiana, 76 more brothers than we took in.

We dropped for nonpayment of dues alone 1,822, and initiated only 1,558 brothers during 1910, or lost for nonpayment of dues 264 more brothers than we initiated.

Now, brothers, as president of the Rebekah Assembly of Indiana, I feel that it is my duty to call your attention to these facts, and in doing so I am not finding any fault with you, but I hope these facts may inspire you to help us do more and better work this year than was done last year.

Our whole gain for the year 1910 was only 26. Now, as the Sovereign Grand Lodge meets here next September, I would like to see at least one-half of the Odd Fellows in this State Rebekahs by that time. Let us work to get 50 per cent. of the subordinate members initiated by next September.

I find by looking over the Grand Lodge reports that there are about 170 Subordinate Lodges that have no Rebekah Lodge, and I hope that each one of you brothers here today who represent a subordinate lodge that has no Rebekah Lodge will take a blank petition home with you and do your very best to have a Rebekah Lodge instituted at each of such places.

We can accomplish wonders, brothers, if we will only get down to good hard, persistent work.

The fact that Indiana now has a Grand Sire; the fact that Indiana will have the Sovereign Grand Lodge meet here in this building next September, and the fact that Ohio and Illinois are striving to surpass Indiana in Rebekah membership ought to inspire us to do more and better work for Indiana Rebekah Odd Fellowship this year than we have ever done.

Sister Kate I. Nichols, Vice-President, said:

Grand Master and Brothers:

I thank you for the privilege of appearing before you at this time, and I wish to state as briefly as possible that it has given us a great deal of pleasure to learn that you have now pending before this Grand Lodge a proposition to require all representatives hereafter elected to be in possession of the Rebekah Degree. We have long felt that such a law should be enacted, for the reason that representatives who are not Rebekah members can not in the nature of things be as familiar with the condition and needs of the Rebekah branch of the Order as those who are members, and we feel that at this time, in view of the unusual circumstances by which we are now surrounded, we are greatly in need of the support and encouragement of all members of this Grand Body and of the brothers generally throughout the State who, we feel sure, will be willing to do whatever may appear to them to be for the best interests of this beloved Order which is so dear to all our hearts.

With the 80,000 Odd Fellows in the State of Indiana, to what heights may not Odd Fellowship attain if every brother is a member of and interested in the Rebekah branch of the Order.

Sister Ida S. Van Dorin, Warden, addressed the Grand Body as follows:

Grand Master and Brothers:

We esteem it a great honor to be permitted to present to this body some questions that touch upon the welfare of our branch of the Order, a mighty working force of 44,992 earnest Rebekahs.

During the past year there have been 1,992 brothers admitted to membership in our degree, but, brothers, I am grieved to report to you that 2,068 have been abated, making a net loss to us of 76 brothers.

Do you know the reason why? We don't. And we come asking you to help us to solve this question. Until this year we have always been at the head of the list as the largest jurisdiction in the world, but this distinction, we fear, is no longer ours. year more than any other have we desired to stand first, not only because of the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in this city, but because our State has been honored with a Grand Sire. We are working for the same cause that you are. We are working in the same field that you are. We are of your household, your mothers, your wives, your sisters, your daughters. We are those whom you have taken an obligation to protect in times of peril, distress or difficulty. We are thankful that we are not coming to you for help of that character at this time, but may we not ask that you, who have taken this obligation, come over into Macedonia and help us do the things that we as members of your household want to help you to do. We thank you for your kindness and courtesy in giving us this hearing, and we plead with you to open up to us the wider field that surely will come if you will pass the resolution now before you admitting no future delegate to this body until he is first a good and true Rebekah.

Sister Ella M. Clark, Secretary, spoke briefly:

Grand Master and Brothers:

I am pleased to have the honor of visiting the Grand Lodge of Indiana, and will only say that I heartily endorse what my sisters have said to you at this time, and sincerely thank you for the courtesies extended to us, and wish you God speed in the good work in which you are engaged.

Sister Mary Stipp said:

Grand Master, and Brother Odd Fellows of Indiana:

It gives me great pleasure to be permitted to look into your faces at this time and to add to what has already been said by the other officers of the Rebekah Assembly of Indiana, that it is my earnest hope and desire that the matter we have thus brought to your notice will receive your kind consideration and favorable action. I thank you for your kindness and attention.

Sister Annetta M. Brehm, Past President, in interesting remarks, thanked the Grand Lodge for the courtesies shown.

The Deputy Grand Master thanked the visitors for their presence and remarks.

The visitors then retired, the Grand Lodge standing in their honor.

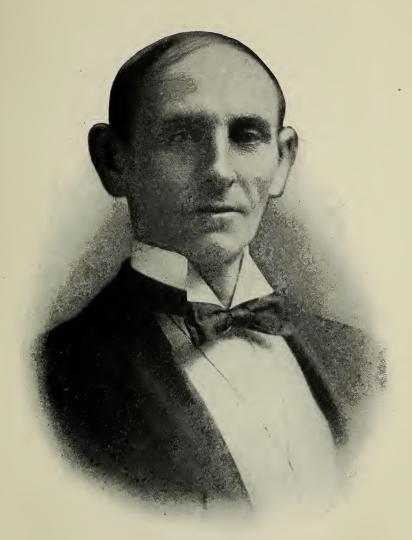

J. McB. Smith, from the Legislative Committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred the following matter, laid over from the November session, 1910:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Legislative Committee, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Master's report pertaining to the loan and investment of the funds of subordinate lodges among its members, after due consideration, respectfully recommend that Sec. 159 of the Revised General Laws, 1910, be amended to read as follows:

ULRIC Z. WILEY
GRAND MASTER, 1891-92

Sec. 159. Not to Be Divided, Investment. The funds and properties of a lodge are not subject to be divided in any manner among the members individually, or between one lodge and another, but shall remain for its legitimate purpose the property of the lodge, subject to the liabilities and authority of the Grand Lodge. Such funds may be invested in such property as will be useful in furthering the objects and purposes of the lodge, or will produce a safe income for its benefit, title thereto being in all cases vested in the lodge, and may be expended in carrying out the legitimate purposes of the Order, but shall not be expended, donated nor paid out for any other purpose whatever: Provided, That a lodge shall not loan funds to, nor invest funds with, its own members.

recommend that the same be adopted.

Also the following report:

We, your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred the following matter, laid over from the November session, 1910, namely:

Geo. P. Bornwasser, G. Rep., submitted the following:

Resolved, That Sec. 29 of the General Laws, edition of 1910, be amended as follows: To substitute the word "shall" for the word "may," so that said section shall read as follows:

Sec. 29. Bond. Officers and Trustees having charge of lodge funds shall give bond and security in such reasonable amount as shall be fixed by the lodge. The lodge shall purchase bonds for its officers from a responsible corporation authorized by law to become surety thereon.

respectfully recommend that it be indefinitely postponed. We think that the present law giving to each lodge the right to determine what is best for it, in its circumstances and conditions, and that it might be very inconvenient for small country lodges to secure surety bonds. And we also learn that some fraternal orders in the State provide by law that the Grand Lodge shall purchase one security bond that will indemnify each lodge in the State against loss, and that such a bond can be secured for a much smaller sum than can individual and separate bonds for each officer or for each lodge. And with this fact before us we think it should be fully investigated and determined upon before any change in the law shall be made.

G. P. Bornwasser, G. Rep., moved to strike out the word "indefinitely," which motion prevailed, and the report as amended was adopted.

J. McB. Smith, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred the following matter, laid over from the November session, 1910:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana: We, your Legislative Committee, to whom was referred that portion of the Grand Master's report pertaining to claims of one lodge against another, or a lodge against a general relief committee, after due consideration, respectfully recommend that Sec. 240 of the Revised General Laws of 1910 be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 240. Lodge Claiming Benefits Paid. A lodge or a general relief committee which has paid sick benefits or nurse hire to a brother sojourning or residing within its jurisdiction, or the funeral expense of such brother, may appeal to a committee of Past Grands from the refusal of such brother's lodge to reimburse it for such expenditures, by taking the steps which the brother would have been required to take if he had claimed such benefits from his lodge and his claim had been disallowed: Provided, That if the lodge or general relief committee aggrieved be in another district than that of the lodge or general relief committee against which complaint is made, such lodge or general relief committee may appeal from such refusal directly to the Grand Lodge.

recommend that the same be adopted.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred the following resolution:

BUILDING FUND.

"Be it Resolved, That Subordinate Lodges owning their own property on which there is an indebtedness, all revenue derived from said property in the way of rentals or otherwise shall be held in the hands of the trustees and be known as a Building Fund, said funds to be used only by said trustees in keeping the property in a tenantable condition, the payment of taxes and assessments on said property and the payment of all other indebtedness against said property, and it shall be unlawful to use said funds for any other purpose until the indebtedness against said property is liquidated. Nothing in this resolution shall be construed to prohibit the lodges voting funds from the General Fund to the Building Fund for the purposes enumerated."

presented by Brothers W. J. Dustman, A. A. Melching, J. W. Estabrook, and W. L. Fetters of Bluffton Lodge, No. 114, recommend that the same be indefinitely postponed for the reason that the same would work a hardship on some lodges, and for the further reason that all lodge property is financially for the purpose of relief and charity and always subject to be drawn on for such purposes.

Also the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred the following matter from the November session, 1910:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, the undersigned, propose that Section five (5), Article one

(1), of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. Eligibility. No person shall be eligible to a seat in this Grand Lodge unless he shall have served regularly as a Vice-Grand and Noble Grand at least one legal term in some subordinate lodge, except only in the case of the first Noble Grand and the first Vice-Grand of a new lodge, and also in case of a brother elected to fill an unexpired term of a Noble Grand or Vice-Grand where such election is permitted by general law; and also unless he shall be a member in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge. And these qualifications shall be, in all cases, certified to by the Noble Grand and Secretary of all lodges concerned, and sealed with the seal of the same before the Grand Lodge Degree shall be conferred upon any applicant for membership, or Representative elect.

which, on motion, was laid over under the rules, recommend that the same be not adopted for the reason that the same is contrary to Sovereign Grand Lodge Law; also for the further reason that a Past Grand is entitled to attend Grand Lodge and vote, if not a representative; and we recommend that the matter be taken up by our representatives to Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Ira Cree, P. G., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred the following matter, laid over from the November session, 1910:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Legislative Committe, to whom was referred the resolution of J. Frank Mann, P. G., No. 74, to amend Section 113, Revised General Laws, 1910, after due consideration, respectfully recommend the adoption of the following section, to be known as

Sec. 125 A, which is as follows, to wit:

Sec. 125 A.—When the disability of the brother be that of unsound mind, the relief committee of the lodge may pay such benefits to the wife of such brother, if he have one; if not, then to such members of his immediate family as are dependent upon him for support, and such payment shall be as full a discharge of the obligations of the lodge as if the payments were made directly to the brother: Provided, That, if the brother have no wife or mem-bers of his immediate family dependent upon him, such payments may be made to the legally appointed guardian of such brother." recommend that the same be adopted.

M. A. Chipman, P. G. Rep., from the same committee, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred the following resolution:

Be it Resolved, That where one or more branches of the I. O. O. F. use the same quarters, that each such branch must pay the expenses of its meetings, such as fuel, light, water rent, telephone and such other expense incident to the use of said quarters, together with a reasonable amount for depreciation caused by each branch.

presented by Brothers W. J. Dustman, A. A. Melching, J. W. Estabrook, and W. L. Fetters of Bluffton Lodge, No. 114, recommend that the same be indefinitely postponed, as we have no right to dictate to lodges what kind of a contract they shall make in reference to their meeting places, but leave each lodge the right to make the best contract it can under the circumstances.

E. E. Hastings, P. G. Rep., from the Committee on Judiciary, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred by the Committee on the State of the Order, that part of the Grand Master's report designated as "Bargersville Lodge" wish to say that we commend and indorse the action of the Grand Master in this matter, and would suggest the following:

First. That if it be true, that some brother or brothers are, or have been taking rituals from the lodge room, then charges should be preferred as provided by Clause 3, of Section No. 179, of the General Laws. 1910.

Second. If the Noble Grand has failed to perform his duty as provided by section No. 21 of said General Laws, then charges should be preferred against him.

Third. This matter should be referred by the Grand Master to the District Deputy of the county wherein said lodge is situated with positive instructions that if this lodge or its officers refuse or fail to take some action as above suggested, that he cause charges to be made against the accused, and to see that a thorough and complete investigation is made.

Geo. Rogers, P. G., from the Committee on Finance and Accounts, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Finance and Accounts, to whom was referred the letter and appeal of Brother Fred Neff (hereto attached), a blind member of Gotthardt Lodge, No. 574, I. O. O. F., of Logansport, Ind., who has been blind for over thirty years with a wife who has been sick and helpless for several years past, and two daughters, only one of whom is able to give support to the afflicted family, beg leave to report that according to your instruction we have considered the same, and recommend a donation of fifty dollars be made for the benefit and assistance of our blind brother and his afflicted family from the funds of this Grand Lodge, believing it to be money well bestowed.

Lafayette, Ind., May 11, 1911.

To Any Brother Odd Fellow or to Their Lodges:

The bearer of this is Brother Fred Neff, a member in good standing in Gotthardt Lodge, No. 574, located at Logansport, Indiana, but has been a resident of Lafayette, Indiana, for over twenty years and has been totally blind all of that time.

He is sorely afflicted, having lost his eyesight, and his wife has been sick for the past eight years, during most of which time she has been confined to her bed. She has to have a doctor's care and medicine constantly.

One daughter is not quite bright and there is little or no income with which to meet the expenses of the household.

Anything you may be able to do to assist Mr. Neff will be greatly appreciated.

Fraternally yours,

FRED NEFF.

J. F. Carmichael, P. G., from the Committee on Finance and Accounts, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

U. Z. Wiley, P. G. Rep., offered the following resolution, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

Grand Master and Brothers—Brother F. Foster Reynolds, who became an Odd Fellow when he was 21 years old, and who has been a member of the Grand Lodge for more than a quarter of a century, has been seriously ill since early in January of this year, and has been confined to his home and bed during most of that time.

Brother Reynolds has been an active member of our Order since his initiation, and has lived and exemplified its principles and teachings in his life. He has been a constant attendant at the meetings of the Grand Lodge, and his enforced absence from this session, by reason of his illness, is most keenly felt by those who have known him so long, and have esteemed him so highly.

As every Odd Fellow in Indiana knows, he is the proprietor, and one of the publishers of the Odd Fellows' Talisman, which is recognized by our Brotherhood everywhere, as the foremost fraternal journal in the world, and an able champion of the principles and teachings of our beloved Order.

In view of his illness, and his absence from this session, and as an appreciation of the services he has rendered to the Order, and as an expression of the fraternal esteem in which we hold him, I offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the officers and members of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana, assembled in its Seventy-Fifth Semi-Annual Session, extend to Brother Reynolds in his afflictions, our sincere and fraternal sympathy, and express to him our cordial and earnest hope that he may be speedily restored to his former health and activity.

Resolved, As a further evidence of our love, esteem, respect, sympathy and hope for his restoration to health, and for his good cheer that a committee of three be appointed by the Grand Master, to procure and present to Brother Reynolds, a suitable and appropriate floral offering, and that a certified copy of these resolutions be also presented to him, with such floral offering.

Fraternally submitted, U. Z. WILEY, P. G. Rep. The Grand Master appointed Bros. Edwin Farrer, M. A. Chipman and J. Frank Mann a committee to present the floral offering and resolutions of the Grand Lodge.

The report of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals was taken up.

Case No. 1348, Huckstep vs. Rose Lodge, No. 638, was considered and was amended by the adoption of the following as a part of the resolution:

Said new trial shall be had before a new Committee of Past Grands to be selected under Section 241, General Laws 1910; and leave is given the plaintiff to amend his complaint if he shall so desire.

As amended the report was adopted.

Case No. 1349, Aaron Madden vs. Scalesville Lodge, No. 816, was considered and adopted.

The case of Anton Frontero vs. Unity Lodge, No. 827, was considered and adopted.

The legislation proposed and advocated by the Committee from the Rebekah Assembly was referred to the Legislative Committee, with instructions to report at the November session.

The several reports of committees laid on the table at yesterday's session and printed in the Daily Journal were taken up. (See pages 7666 to 7675, this Revised Journal.)

Report No. 1, from the Committee on Petitions and Applications, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 2, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 3, from the same committee, was considered. After discussion by Geo. P. Bornwasser, G. Rep.; C. F. Northern, P. G. Rep.; J. T. Arbuckle, P. G., and E. E. Pryor, P. G. Rep., the following motion was adopted and the report referred back with instructions.

E. E. Pryor moved as follows:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

I move that Report No. 3 be referred back to the committee with instructions to report in favor of granting the request of the brother, and that said committee make the letter of said brother a part of its report.

Report No. 4, from the same committee, was considered and adopted

Report No. 5, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 6, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 7, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 8, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 9, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 10, from the Committee on By-Laws, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 11, from the Committee on Judiciary, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 12, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 13, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 14, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 15, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 16, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 17, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 18, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 19, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 20, from the Committee on the Rebekah Degree, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 21, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 22, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 23, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 24, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 25, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 26, from the same committee, was considered and adopted.

Report No. 27, from the Committee on Petitions and Applications, was considered. R. H. Hildebrand, P. G., moved that the report be referred back to the committee, with instructions to report adversely to the granting of the petition. After discussion by R. H. Hildebrand, P. G., and J. T. Arbuckle, P. G., a vote was taken and this motion was lost. The report was then adopted.

U. Z. Wiley, P. G. Rep., moved a reconsideration of the report adopted at this session, from the committee on Finance and Accounts, making a continuing appropriation of $200 per term, or so much as may be necessary, for properly entertaining Grand Officers of other Jurisdictions who may visit Indianapolis on business connected with the Order. (See page 7687-8, this Revised Journal.) The motion was adopted.

The question being upon the adoption of the report, after discussion by U. Z. Wiley, P. G. Rep., G. P. Bornwasser, G. Rep., O. A. Armfield, P. G., and Edwin Farrer, P. G. Rep., the report was again adopted.

Morton Brown, P. G., from the Committee on Petitions and Applications, made the following report, which was considered and adopted:

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

We, your Committee on Petitions and Applications, to whom was referred the petition of Brother George Lonnon, of New Albany Lodge, No. 1, to solicit aid from sister lodges, as follows:

New Albany, Ind., May 15, 1911.

To the Grand Lodge Officers and Delegates from the Lodges of the State of Indiana:

Dear Brothers and Friends—In writing this letter to you I hope I am doing nothing wrong. I am only going to state the case in truth and you can do what you will.

I was 87 years old last April and lived with my wife in the house I am now living in for 63 years the first of July; I have owned it for 63 years. It is the house where the first lodge of Odd Fellows was instituted, when it took a year to get the charter. It then stood up on Main between State and Pearl. Old Brother Malbon, one of the charter members, kept a confectionery in it.

It was afterwards moved to where it now stands.

I have been an Odd Fellow since 1864. I am now old and have not been able to do any laborious work for 10 years, and I am also afflicted with a skin cancer on the face. My days on earth are not long. My wife and single daughter are living here with me. We have been married 63 years the 4th of June next. I should love for my wife and myself to end our days in the only home we ever lived in together. The only support is my daughter, and it is heavy on her. There is a mortgage of $200 dollars on the home and it needs some repairs, and thought I would ask some help from the lodges of the State represented at the Grand Lodge. If each lodge will send one dollar I will send them a picture of the house just as soon as I can get them taken and finished. Hope Lodge No. 83, I. O. O. F., holds the mortgage, and I would love to cancel it. If this is against the rules of the Grand Lodge let it drop. If anything is done please let me know and send it by postoffice order or express. Anyway to suit yourself, and also send me the address of lodge sending the money.

Yours in F. L. T.,

BROTHER GEORGE LONNON,
310 West Market St., New Albany, Ind., Floyd County.
P. S. I belong to New Albany Lodge, No. 1.

beg leave to report, that we have had the same under consideration and have attached hereto the letter from Brother Lonnon upon which this action is founded, and recommend that same be printed in the record as a part of this report, and that the prayer of the petitioner be granted. W. H. Bradshaw, P. G., from the Committee on Mileage and Per Diem, made the following report, which was considered and adopted.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Indiana:

STANDING RESOLUTIONS.

- 1. Resolved, That the hour of 10 o'clock of the second day's session be assigned at the semi-annual and annual communications for the exemplification of the unwritten work by Grand Representatives.
- 2. Resolved, That at the semi-annual sessions the nomination of officers shall be next in order after the exemplification of the unwritten work, and at the annual session the nomination and election of officers shall follow immediately after the exemplification of the unwritten work.
- 3. Resolved, That the report of the Grand Representatives be made through the Grand Secretary and be referred to a Special or Standing Committee for distribution, without being read, unless otherwise ordered by a majority vote of the Grand Lodge.
- 4. Resolved, That after the terms of the present Grand Officers have expired, services as Grand Master shall not of itself be considered as establishing any claim to an election to the office of Grand Representative.—Proceedings Grand Lodge, November Session, 1888.
- 5. Resolved, That in all future sessions of this Grand Lodge the Grand Marshal be required to reserve seats immediately in front of the Grand Master's chair for the Representatives duly accredited to that session of this Grand Lodge.—November, 1896.
- 6. That all resolutions or propositions for changing or amending the General Laws shall be presented in duplicate—one copy for the Grand Secretary, the other for the committee to which the same shall be referred.—May, 1904, p. 3744.

The money must accompany all orders for the above supplies. Note the following: Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be and is hereby instructed that he shall not hereafter sell or transmit to any Lodge or individual any supplies for Subordinate or Rebekah Lodges unless the eash therefor accompanies the order.—May, 1897.

Rituals can be sent by express only, or by a duly accredited member.

Grand Secretaries are prohibited from delivering or transmitting Visiting or Withdrawal Cards or Rituals to any person whatever, or to any Lodge, excepting upon the order, in writing, of a Lodge, signed by its Secretary and authenticated by the official seal. Orders must state whether to send by mail or express. If by mail, the requisite number of stamps to prepay the postage must be enclosed. If by express, state to what office or station, and to whose care. Enclose a stamp in all letters requiring a reply.

W. H. LEEDY, Grand Secretary.
